

Hello Sophmores!

I hope you and your loved ones are all healthy. I miss seeing your smiling faces each day.

Hopefully you have read a book for second semester. Remember to answer three questions in paragraph form from the Reading Analysis handout.

When we get back to the classroom, we will be studying the play Julius Caesar, by William Shakespeare. I have put together some videos for you to watch that will give you an overview of this play. There is a short explanation about each video.

*One of the videos should probably be rated PG 13 for language, but it has good information. Don't watch it if you are offended by foul language.

~This first video gives a short summary of the characters in the play.
